Hi Dan - this has been a difficult memo to generate. I'm also juggling seven other Board memos and their individual issues. I hoped to have another version ready today but as it is now 2:40 pm that won't happen. I'm in training for the next three days. Maybe by Friday but Monday COB is more likely. Thanks for your patience.

Subject: West Lake Landfill: NRRB progress on comments?

Amy, it has been a while since we saw draft 4 of the NRRB comments on West Lake show up on Quickr. We saw some e-mail traffic that indicated the comments were still being revised by Board members. Do you know when the Board will have a draft final version available that the Region can formally respond to?

Thanks,
